

Quality, Environmental and safety management policy

- ☞ In order to meet stakeholder requirements, laws and regulations and to provide our customer a service / product in accordance with their requirements, so we could achieve continuous improvement of the effectiveness of the quality management system, environment and safety, the organization maintains a quality management system in accordance with the requirements of ISO 9001, an environmental management system in accordance with the requirements of ISO 14001 and an occupational safety and health management system in accordance with ISO 45001.
- ☞ The organization performs while complying with laws and other applicable requirements in its field of activity.
- ☞ The organization recognizes its mission and organizational context, including the nature, ranking and environmental impacts and risk ranking of its activities, products / services.
- ☞ The organization's management recognizes the need to implement control mechanisms in its field of activity.
- ☞ The organization maintains a dynamic system for risk management in its field of activity and works to reduce the risks.
- ☞ By setting quality, environmental and safety goals for the organization's activities, the organization's management is committed to continuous improvement and promotion of the quality, environment, safety and occupational health management system.
- ☞ The organization works to raise the awareness of its employees, and the employees on its behalf, for the aspects of the quality assurance management system, the environmental management system and the safety and health system in the organization's employment.
- ☞ The organization's management is committed in involving employees and their representatives in relation to the environmental management system and occupational safety and health.
- ☞ The organization is committed to protect the environment, the occupational safety and the health of all employees and subcontractors, by preventing safety incidents, including pollution prevention. The use of adequate resources will be while committing to comply with all legal and other requirements and other obligations relevant to the organization context.
- ☞ The organization is committed to provide a safe workplace, eliminating risks and prevent occupational safety and health incidents, while committing itself to complying with all legal

From Procedure No. 4, Section 5.2, dated: 1.1.2022